BAITINGE, Sept. 11, 1851.

Messrs. Mortimer & Mewbray: I feel it a duty to make known the benefits I have derived from Dr. Hampton's Tincture. For a length of time I have been subject to great prostration of muscular power, and great debility of the nervous system, accompanied with pulpitation and fluttering of the heart. I had such sudden attacks that on one occasion I could scarcely get home. I making mention of my case to a friend, he referred me to Joseph K. Stapleton, esq., an old and highly respectable citizen of Baltimore, who had used the Tincture under similar circumstances. I called on Mr. Stapleton, and, after an interview of some minutes, I was fully satisfied of the medical virtues of the Tincture, from the evidence before me, of his own person, who, for some time previous, indicated a falling state of health, but now a hearty, hale appearance, with the activity of youth. I immediately commenced using the Tincture, and, before I took the contents of one bottle, my strength was renewed, and I can walk as brisk and am as active as I was towas trended, years ago. This Tincture is the grand restorative of the digestive organs, which when destroyed, the whole system is in a state of suffering.

I do assert it is no humbug, but is, in reality, what it is represented to be by Dr. Hampton, the inventor.

Notwithstanding the scurrilous remarks made by a certain vender of the Chickering Pianos, that "the instruments made by Hallett, Davis & Co., are worthless, perfect humbugs," &c., we can only say that we do not offer the public any but what are the genuine H., D. & Co.'s; and competent persons, honest, without prejudice, have pronounced them equal, if not superior, to any heretofore offered in this city, and at a saving of one hundred and fifty dollars! BEAUTIFUL, NEW, and Choice Property at Auction.—On Monday, the 24th inst., I shall sell, at 6 o'clock p.m., on the premise, a beautiful new six-story Brick Residence, situated on part of Lot No. 8, in Square No. 685, fronting 26 fest on North Capitol street, midway between the Capitol and new Railroad Depot, immediately opposite Gen. Washington's house, now occupied by Com. Wilkes. The above-described house is just finished, and no expense has been spared to make it of the most substantial kind. It has treble window frames from and back from top to bottom, and the best French thick-plate glass in the whole entire front, and a large portion of the back with Gothic cast-iron windows. Many of the rooms are large and lofty, from 19 by 6 to 34 by 6, and less. In front there is a 12-foot projecting porch, which can be ornamented by a railing, or continuous porch or balustrade. The building is surmounted with an observatory 14 by 22 feet, from which a fine view may be had of Fort Washington, Mount Vernon, and A'exandria; also, the Upper Falls and surrounding District; the view is considered much better than that from the dome of the United States Capitol. The carpenters' work was completed by Morsell, the best builder in this section of country. This lossition is in the centre of the city, and the most open, siry, convenient, and desirable of any portion of Washington.

This location—for hotels, stores, and other establishments—affords better openings for a business community than is at present known in the country, as there is now no city railroad depot in the world but has buildings, stores, boarding-houses, and hotels near to their place for the accommodation of the public, except in this city of Washington, where is now offered all these advantages to purchasers and a business community. rs and a business community.

Georgetown, May 19-12 m. Both political parties in our town are unusually quiet, considering that we are just upon the eve of the Presidential campaign. Probably they are "nursing their wrath to keep it warm" until the Conventions shall place before them officially their respective leaders. So far as I have been able to learn the sentiments of the Democratic party, Gen. Cass appears to be their first choice, though some of the old heads think it rather dangerous to enter the contest with a leader who has once been defeated. Of the sentiments of the Whigs I am more thoroughly posted, and think I will venture nothing when I say that the brave old General whose name so frequently appears upon the pages of the Telegraph, and who has so often lcd his country's arms to glory and to victory, is the first and last choice of nineteen-twentieths. With him as their standard-bearer, they

Mr. King having reason to suspect foul play, requested him to wait until he could go to bank for the money; but, to his utter surprise, instead of Mr. King, on returning, bringing with him the money, he brought officer John Adams, who arrested him and took him before Justice H. Reaver, when. upon examination, it was satisfactorily shown that the draft was a forgery. Justice Reaver fully committed him to jail. The signature of the above-named firm was well executed.
